TVEITMOE BRINGS OTHERS INTO LIMELIGHT

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 15.—In a statement made by Olaf Tveitmo, the San Francisco labor leader, he declares that at a meeting held in Los Angeles some time after the confession made by the McNamara, Oscar Lawler tried to induce the leaders at the meeting to implicate Sam Gompers in the dynamiting case. According to Tveitmo, Mr. Lawler intimated that if the leaders would declare that the head of the American Federation of Labor knew of the guilt of the brothers prior to the confession they could be sure of immunity from prosecution.

FEW IMMIGRANTS TO BE TURNED BACK HOME

Comparatively few of the 1800-odd immigrants brought over on the British ship Willesden will be rejected here because of physical disability. In spite of exaggerated reports that many of these immigrants are fated to be deported under the Federal immigration laws, it is stated at the Federal immigration station that no large number will be turned back from the land of their choice. A few have been found lacking in certain points where the U. S. requirements are rigid, but most of them are healthy, strong and intelligent and will make good citizens. Just how many will be rejected is not yet known, as the examinations have not yet been finished. Dr. Clark, the Territorial Commissioner of Immigration, said today that there would be no large number rejected, and this was confirmed at the Federal station.
